

UIP Research Fellowship Kreussler Young Scientists' Sclerotherapy Award Guidelines

Awarding institution:

Union Internationale de Phlébologie UIP = International Union of Phlebology IUP

Sponsored by:

Chemische Fabrik Kreussler & Co. GmbH

Endowed with:

10,000 € (plus a grant for travel expenses)
in three instalments, i.e.

- ▶ 5,000 € after project presentation
- ▶ 1,000 € after submission of an interim research progress report after 12–18 months
- ▶ 4,000 € after presentation of the final project report after 24 months

Purpose / Task:

Kreussler intends to grant the UIP Research Fellowship “Kreussler Young Scientists’ Sclerotherapy Award” for generating and conducting a clinical, preclinical or experimental research project in the field of phlebologic sclerotherapy, especially for young scientists.

Age limit:

Applicants should preferably not be older than 45 years on date of application.

Award interval:

Every four years

Application and deadline:

Electronic submission by email in English. All documentation is to be sent to Eberhard.Rabe@ukb.uni-bonn.de by July 31st, 2021.

Required documentation:

Completed application form with

- ▶ Personal information and short curriculum vitae
- ▶ List of publications published / awards, fellowships, etc. received within the last 2 years
- ▶ Summary and detailed description of the project
- ▶ Disclosure of possible conflicts of interests
- ▶ Signed agreement

Award ceremony:

The award ceremony and presentation of the awarded study project will be on the occasion of the UIP – World Congress in Istanbul (Turkey) from October 25th to 31st, 2021.

Award presentation:

Scientific lectures of the award winner (presentation of awarded study project and/or presentation of results) are integral part of the official UIP Congress Program.